5 Jasmine doesn't play games online. (a lot of / many / some)

6 I don't drink water – that's why I often have a headache. (much / many / enough)

3  Complete the dialogue with the correct quantifiers. Sometimes more than one option is possible.

Mum Can you do me a favour, Elliott? Could you get me
(1) butter from the shops, please?

Elliott Why do you need butter?

Mum Because I'm baking a cake and there isn't (2) butter in the fridge – only a few grams. That isn't
(3) butter to bake a cake.

Elliott The problem is that I've got (4) homework to do.

Mum But you're watching TV. You aren't doing (5) homework at the moment!

Elliott Yes, I am. There are (6) history programmes on at the moment and our history teacher asked us to watch them as part of our homework.

Mum Really? How (7) programmes do you need to watch, then?

Elliott Two, so I'll go to the shops in an hour.

Mum Thanks, Elliott.
